Strangler Calmly Tells of Killing Three Models

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Confessed strangler of three Los Angeles area models today led police officers to the desert graves of two of them.

Calmly, Harvey M. Glatman of Los Angeles led officers to a remote, sandy area near Escondido in San Diego County. He identified the remains found there as the bodies of Mrs. Shirley Ann Loy Bridgeford, 24, a divorcee of Sun Valley, a Los Angeles suburb, and Miss Ruth Rita Mercado, 24, a Los Angeles model.

A body found, also in the desert, near Indio in Riverside County last December is believed to be that of his third victim, Mrs. Judy Ann Dull, 19, of West Hollywood.

Glatman told police he killed her and buried her in that area.

Officers here, who booked the 30-year-old television repairman on suspicion of murder, said a fourth intended victim, Miss Lorraine Vigil, 28, Los Angeles, brought about Glatman's capture.

He made a date with her Monday night for some picture-taking but, instead, took her out on the Santa Ana Freeway, produced a gun and attempted to assault her, police said. However, she succeeded in grabbing the gun and was holding Glatman at bay when officers happened to come along.

Sheriff's officers said the three women killed first were raped. They quoted Glatman:

"I would make them kneel down. With the gun on them, I would tie this five-foot piece of rope around their ankles. Then I would loop it around their neck. Then I would stand there and

Bulletin

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio reported tonight that a meeting of Russian Writers asked the Soviet government to deprive author Boris Pasternak of Soviet citizenship.

Pasternak Is Invited to Leave Russia

LONDON (AP) — Moscow Radio in 10 languages, invited novelist Boris Pasternak today to get out of the Soviet Union.

"Let him go where he wishes to," the broadcast said of the writer, who turned down the 1958 Nobel Prize this week under heavy Soviet pressure. "No Soviet man or woman wants to breathe the air he breathes."

The broadcast — in English, German, French, Portuguese, Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, Greek, Italian and Serbo-Croat — declared the author of "Doctor Zhivago" has "no place in Soviet society." They called Pasternak "a man who in spirit has long been a traitor to his country and who has now spat in its face... a poet of the decadent school... a pretender to aesthetic culture who wrote for a select few and had no contact with the people."

At about the same time, in Stockholm, a Soviet diplomat was issuing assurances that no harm would come to Pasternak and that he will still get royalties from abroad for his novel.

Nicolai Volnov, Soviet charge d'affaires, told the Swedish Writers Assn. that "no reprisals will be taken against Boris Pasternak."

Pasternak rejected the $41,420 Nobel Prize for Literature Wednesday, six days after it was awarded him. He previously had thanked the Royal Swedish Academy for the prize. He obviously changed his mind because of the storm raised in the Soviet press. If Volnov's statement is correct, Pasternak still would have an income despite his ouster from the Soviet Writers' Union. While the book never was published in the Soviet Union, it has been a best seller abroad.

Hays Finding Support at Morrilton

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sheriff Marlin Hawkins of Morrilton yesterday said he would support Rep. Brooks Hays for re-election to Congress. He called on other "loyal Democrats" to do the same.

Hays is opposed for a ninth term by Dr. Dale Alford of Little Rock, who several days ago announced as a write-in candidate for the Fifth District Congressional seat at next Tuesday's election.

Hawkins has been a staunch supporter of Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

There have been indications that Alford is running with the tacit blessing of the governor. A close Faubus associate, Claude Carpenter Jr., is Alford's campaign manager and the write-in candidate's publicity is being handled by the Little Rock firm which performed that task for Faubus in the last summer's primary campaign.

Faubus has refused to comment, noting that he does not vote in the Fifth Congressional District.

The governor left town for the weekend and did not plan to return until after Tuesday, when he will vote at Huntsville.

Hawkins said that since Alford's announcement "thousands of people have contacted me relative to my activities in the coming election."

"I wish to state," he said, "that I am the Democratic nominee for sheriff and collector of Conway County, and I am proud of the honor. Under no circumstances would I vote against the Democratic nominee for any office."

"I urge all loyal Democrats to vote for all Democratic nominees in the coming election... and especially I urge them to vote for Brooks Hays, who won the Democratic nomination for Congress after a hotly contested primary election when the issues were brought squarely before the people."

The sheriff said he would mail out postcards asking Conway County residents to vote for Hays and for the 2 per cent sales tax next Tuesday.

Alford is basing his campaign against Hays chiefly on the contention that the incumbent has been too moderate on the integration issue.

Both candidates plan televised speeches tonight and other activity before the election.

Hays, who defeated segregationist Amos Cuthbert in the Democratic primary this summer, plans to return from Russellville in time for a 6:30 p.m. speech.

Alford will speak at 8.

Hays went to Russellville yesterday to be near his ailing father, 69-year-old Steele Hays, who suffered a relapse after a pneumonia attack.

Party Chairmen Hurl Charges on Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican and Democratic national chairmen accused each other's party last night of glaring disregard for civil rights.

The issue is important in northern districts where the Negro vote is heavy, and here is what Democrat Paul M. Butler and Republican Meade Alcorn had to say about it five days before election.

Butler—"The Republican party has a long and public record of callous duplicity on human rights. It took a Democratic Congress to pass the first civil rights legislation in this country."

Alcorn—"We had 20 years of nothing in the field of civil rights when Democrats controlled both the Congress and the White House."

Alcorn started the immediate quarrel by circulating charges to "document the shoddy Democratic record on civil rights."

These charges said that Democratic national leaders "praised and wooed Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas until they realized he had become a distinct political liability."

Alcorn said former President Harry S. Truman and Butler praised Faubus "even after he used National Guard troops to block the start of school desegregation at Little Rock. In the midst of the 1958 congressional campaign, however, they feverishly tried to disown him. Their phony about-face will fool no one."

Butler responded with a statement saying Alcorn's research into civil rights "is as scanty as the Republican record of real achievement."

The Democrat said Alcorn had remarked in Little Rock this September that the Republican Party is the only one that comes "close to what the southern voter believes."

Further, Butler recalled that Lee Potter, Virginia GOP leader, said in Richmond last year that "our party is for segregation."

Then, the Butler reply continued there was the case of the "you march for integrated schools" in Washington last Saturday. He said:

"A delegation called the White House. President Eisenhower was not available. He was playing golf... No one would see them."

"The final demonstration of Republican cynicism on human rights is that the President has indicated that he feels integration is progressing too fast and as never said that the believed the decision of the Supreme Court on school desegregation was morally right."

Butler worked out.

Danish Reds May Split the Party

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Danish Communists today launched a congress that may split their party. A showdown is expected between Titoists and Moscow die-hards. Party Chairman Aksel Larsen is advocating Titoist independence from Moscow to rebuild the party's fast-falling political fortunes.

Supporters of the Kremlin seem to control most of 200 or so delegates to the party congress, said Marx to just Larsen form the chairman.

RESCUE WORKER — Monson Harrison, the Springhill, Nova Scotia, mine union president, has face black with coal dust after hours in the mine, was among the group of rescue workers who punched a hole through rubble to reach 12 miners trapped for almost six days in a sealed-off shaft of the mine. U. S. Invited to Join Commonwealth

OTTAWA (AP) — The United States has a new invitation to join the British Commonwealth from the husband of Queen Elizabeth II.

Speaking jokingly at the banquet of the English-Speaking Union conference, Prince Philip said an American membership application would receive "sympathetic consideration."

In more serious vein he proposed a toast to partnership between the Commonwealth and the United States but said his was "very much more complicated" than it might appear.

The governor was quoted in a newspaper advertisement as saying the "full crew law doesn't hurt Arkansas."

In a statement issued today, Faubus said:

"The ad shows a picture of me signing a petition presented by Mr. S. J. Smith of Fordyce. I signed the petition, circulated by Mr. Smith, to place an act on the ballot to be voted on at the General Election."

Faubus said the petition he was signing was not one for Initiative Act No. 1.

"I have not made any statement relative to this matter of the Full Crew Law. It is a matter for consideration by the voters of the state and the proposition should be decided on its merits," Faubus said.

Act No. 1 would repeal the Full Crew Law which requires railroads to use an extra brakeman on certain runs. Railroads claim it is a form of "featherbedding" a practice of requiring help that is not necessary. The railroad unions claim it is a safety measure to have the extra brakeman ride the trains.

The negotiations, expected to continue for at least a month, will be conducted in privacy.

Mrs. McCorkle, 71, Dies at Her Home Here Thursday

Mrs. Lula McCorkle, aged 71, a resident of Hempstead County for many years, died Thursday at her home here.

Survivors include five sons, Hal, Jay, Floyd, Claude and Johnny McCorkle, all of Hope and James Thomas McCorkle of Grapewine, Ark.; four daughters, Mrs. Luther Lamb and Mrs. Jack Sumpter of Hope; Mrs. J. D. Duce of Texarkana and Mrs. Herbert Campbell of Prescott.

Services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Columbus Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Horner Williams. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius will be in Columbus Cemetery.

Statistics during July show 24 births and 10 deaths in Hempstead County. Heart disease being the biggest killer with six. Howard had 20 births and 14 deaths and heart disease claimed four victims.

Conference to Ban Nuclear Tests Underway

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH GENEVA (AP) — The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union start negotiating today for a ban on nuclear weapon tests and a detection system to enforce it.

The two Western governments hoped the Soviet Union would join them in an informal suspension of test explosions for the time being.

All three nations professed to favor banning the tests, but a continuing East-West split was underlined by these developments on the conference eve:

1. The Soviet Union insisted that the talks must lead to an agreement outlawing tests immediately and forever, regardless of whether a control system is approved.

2. The United States and Britain announced a conditional one-year suspension of their tests, effective last midnight. The condition was that the Soviet Union cease firing nuclear explosives too.

There was no immediate comment from the Russians, however, as to whether they would join in the suspension.

Leading the delegations are Ambassador James J. Wadsworth of the United States, Semyon K. Tsarapkin of the Soviet Union and Minister of State David Ormsby-Gore of Britain.

New Soviet notes sent to the Western powers Thursday suggested that Secretary of State Dulles, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd sit in later to speed agreement.

This modified the Kremlin's proposal a month ago that the meeting be raised at the start to the foreign ministers' level. The United States and Britain indicated Dulles and Lloyd would take part later if agreement appeared likely.

The Russians have been testing this fall at their arctic proving grounds. U. S. scientists, racing against a diplomatic deadline, wound up an intensive series of shots Thursday at the Nevada test site. Britain has fired five devices in the Pacific since last spring.

No Position on Act One, Says Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus denied today that he has taken any position, for or against, Initiated Act No. 1 which would repeal the so-called "Full Crew Law."

The governor was quoted in a newspaper advertisement as saying the "full crew law doesn't hurt Arkansas."

In a statement issued today, Faubus said:

Department Store Sales Increase

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District rose 3 per cent last week compared to the same week in 1957.

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis said Memphis spearheaded the rise with a 23 per cent gain. Little Rock and Louisville sales were up 4 per cent each, while seven smaller district cities averaged a 3 per cent gain.

Only the St. Louis area had a minus sales figure—3 per cent.

For the four weeks ended last week, district sales were 6 per cent above the like month last year.

Some Rescued Men to Quit the Mines

SPRINGHILL, N. S. (AP) — Some of the 12 men rescued from a week's entombment in a wrecked coal mine have had it. Two vowed today they never will go back to the mines.

Levi Milliey 47, put it this way from a hospital bed where the lucky 12 have been recuperating since their rescue Thursday:

"Well, you can say this: Levi Milliey, former coal miner of Springhill and chicken-raiser on the side is looking for a fulltime job on a chicken farm some place."

"Doesn't matter where. I'll go anywhere. They'll never get me back in that mine."

"I'm never going back into that mine," said Harold Brine. "If I can't make a living somewhere else I'll starve. Being trapped like that gives you an awful feeling."

A similar view was expressed by some of the others. Or their wives said it for them.

Mine rescue crews, meanwhile, probed deeper into the Cumberland No. 2 colliery in search for 49 miners still missing in the disaster.

Assistant rescue director Frank Doney said he held only slim hope that any more of the missing men would be found alive.

Prince Phillip, husband of Queen Elizabeth II, planned to break his trip back to London to visit the 12 survivors tonight. They were rescued after 6½ days of hunger, thirst and despair in a debris-sand pocket.

Doctors said all are in good shape and can return home after a short rest except for Joseph McDonald, 38, who has a broken leg.

Of the 174 miners caught by the gigantic upheaval that wrecked the mine Oct. 23, the record today showed 93 rescued, 32 dead and 49 missing. The 32nd body was brought up early today.

Searchers continued digging. With several hundred feet of rock and debris still to be pierced at the 13,000 and 13,400-foot levels, it may be a week or more before the job is accomplished.

Russia Again Demands End to Tests

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH GENEVA (AP) — Russia today reiterated its demand for an immediate suspension of nuclear weapon tests forever.

Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin made the demand at the start of negotiations with the United States and Britain for a joint suspension of tests under international control.

Tsarapkin said a permanent undertaking by the three powers to stop tests should precede negotiation of the control system to detect violations. The West has consistently refused to agree to a permanent cessation of tests unless the control system is set up first.

Meanwhile, voluntary British and American cessation of tests for a one-year period went into effect today. But both countries have given notice they will resume testing if Russian tests continue.

The negotiations, expected to continue for at least a month, will be conducted in privacy.

ALC Critics Take Out After the Highway Dept.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Critics on the Arkansas Legislative Council today raked the State Highway Department over coals.

The department was denounced by a number of lawmakers, including Reps. John Bethall of Prairie County and Paul Van Dusen of Perry County, who went back four years to relaunch old issues some which previously had been settled and some which had not.

Bethall joined others in criticizing the department for using outside engineering services and declared that he could not understand the agency's budget requests because of the way it was drawn up.

Van Dusen, the most vocal of the critics, demanded more information on how the Highway Department planned to spend its money for the next two years.

He said the Highway Commission was "in bad shape with the legislature" and blamed this partly on lack of public relations work by Highway Director Herbert Elbridge.

Rep. Carroll Hollensworth of Bradley County introduced a motion to require the department to submit more information describing the position of each employee.

The Highway Department, despite heavy criticism, was not without supporters. They included Sen. Oliver Williams of Sheridan and Rep. Joel Ledbetter of Pulaski County.

Williams, objected to Hollensworth's motion, and said the Highway Commission had been "doing a good job."

Ledbetter said the "trouble is, they (the commission) have given us too much information."

In presenting his case, the Highway Commission said it needed an additional nine million dollars a year in state funds to match all federal and money available.

The commission told the Legislative Council that had this money been available during the past fiscal year, Arkansas would receive 14 million dollars more in federal matching funds.

These figures were presented to the council today as it opened a day-long hearing on a proposed budget for the Highway Department calling for an appropriation of nearly 170 million dollars for the next two years.

The budget includes $83,000,000 for the 1959-60 fiscal year and $85,920,000 for 1960-61.

For 1959-60 spending, some $8,000,000 is sought for salaries, $5,000,000 for other personal services and $90,220,000 for maintenance and construction.

The 1960-61 request includes $9,000,000 for salaries, $6,000,000 for other personal services and $79,220,000 for maintenance and construction.

Yesterday the council directed its staff to make a study aimed at trying to bring more state and federal funds under control of the General Assembly.

The move—concerned with non-appropriated funds—is part of an economy drive some legislators have urged for years.

Emmet Man Accidentally Shoots Self

Jeff Hamilton, 51-year-old resident of Emmet, accidentally shot himself to death while squirrel hunting yesterday. It was learned here today.

His body was found near his car about 4 p.m. yesterday just south of Emmet. Apparently the incident occurred about noon. He was hunting with a .22-caliber rifle.

Mr. Hamilton, a long time resident of Emmet, was employed by the Texas Eastern Company at Bodeau.

He is survived by his wife and three daughters.

TIED OF FROST—Going south this winter? If so, you may run into piles of tires like these in Dade County, Fla. Local fruit farmers, revealing the disastrous crop-ruining frosts of 1957, stockpile the old tires which will be burned to create a warming smoke screen during nippy weather in the Sunshine State.

State Acreage in Rice Decreased

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas' rice acreage will be 398,855 acres for 1959, a slight decrease from this year's 399,014 acres.
The figure was set by the Agriculture Department yesterday as part of the national allotment of 1,632,596 acres, the minimum fixed by law.
The 1959 total is the same as the national allotments for the past three years.
Marketing quotas, if proclaimed, and price supports for the 1959 rice crop will be announced shortly after Nov. 15.
Allotments for other states included Louisiana, 474,821 acres; Mississippi, 46,656; Tennessee, 517, and Texas, 422,147.

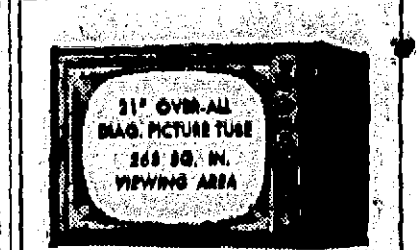

Indict Youth Charged in Officer's Slaying

LONDON, Ky. (AP)—A youth charged with slaying an Arkansas policeman was indicted for murder and armed robbery yesterday in the killing of a local car salesman.
Kenneth D. Nicely, 19, was indicted by Laurel Circuit Court on charges stemming from the death of Tony Brown, 47. Brown's body was found near the city dump Sept. 22, two days after he was last seen at the company where he worked.
Nicely was arrested at Kingsville, Tex., Sept. 24. A policeman shot him through the neck in the Texas town, contending Nicely drew a gun when he was stopped on a speeding charge.
Nicely is being held at Arkansas State Hospital. Arkansas officials have charged him with murder in the slaying of Prescott, Ark., patrolman Ed Verden.

Laurel County Atty. Coleman D. Moore said Nicely admitted slaying the Arkansas officer after he left London.
The officials also said Nicely admitted shooting Brown when they questioned him at the Little Rock hospital last week.

No date has been set for the Arkansas trial. The Kentucky officials said warrants for Nicely have been sent to Arkansas State Police asking them to hold the youth for Kentucky officers in case he is released in Arkansas.

Both Portland, Ore., and Little Rock, Ark., are known as the "City of Roses".

TINY TIM IS REALLY LIVING—Timothy Paul Prigmeier makes his small way into the world at Lutheran Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio. He weighed in at two pounds, two ounces and was 12 inches long, not very much bigger than this picture. Hospital officials vainly searched their records for a smaller premature baby than the one born to proud parents William and Judy Prigmeier of suburban Lakewood. Put into an incubator, Tiny Tim's weight dropped to one pound, 12 ounces. However, he gained weight in the incubator and graduated from eye-dropper to bottle feeding.

NO SWITCHBLADE THIS TIME—Although he "doesn't" particularly look it here, Sal Minceo is happy because he has escaped from the "Rebel Without Cause" type-casting of a snarling punk with a switchblade knife. In his new picture, Walt Disney's "Tonka," he plays a Sioux Indian boy, nephew of Sitting Bull, with a crazy, wild horse named Tonka.

Arkansas to Cut Highway Debt

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas will cut a $622,000 chunk out of its multi-million dollar highway bond debt this week by making a special payment.

The State Board of Finance said yesterday the payment will reduce the highway debt to slightly more than $4 million dollars.

This week's payment will be on bonds of the so-called McMath Highway bond issue of 1948-51, totaling $1,100,000 yet to be paid.

The rest of the state's highway debt is on a 1944 issue on which $79,987,000 is owed.

Title at Stake Tonight as Hope Meets Camden

A bruising football game is in store for Hope fans tonight when the undefeated Bobcats entertain the Camden Panthers in a contest that will probably decide the district title.

For the first time this season the Bobcats will meet a team that is bigger than they are—in fact the visiting Panther line will outweigh the Bobcat line 177 to 170 pounds. However, the Bobcat backs will outweigh the visitors 167 to 161 pounds. Hope's team average is 163 to 170 for the Panthers.

Thus the Bobcat line which has allowed opposition only 20 points all season has its work cut out for it tonight. And it should be a challenge to Hope forwards who have played so well all season.

Winning seven straight games hasn't been a fluke and Hope has had to play hard every Friday night as every team on the schedule points toward the Bobcats.

Camden is no exception. The Panthers are coming into town tonight all fired up and will give everything they got. Last year the situation was very much the same with the contest to decide the district title. Hope was favored, as it was tonight, but Camden knocked off the Bobcats 14 to 7 and eliminated them from the running.

As Coach Pierce put it, "this is the most important game so far. The district title is at stake. We'll have to put out 200 per cent to turn back the much-improved Panthers."

Rain during the morning will probably leave the field wet but not soggy. However, the sun has peeked out at intervals during the day, and the field should be in fairly good shape barring more rain by gametime.

The kickoff is at 8 o'clock.

Happy to See a Champ in Action

NEW YORK (AP)—In these days of boxing drought, New York is happy to see a world champion in a ring, even if his little isn't at stake. That is why there is unusual interest in tonight's appearance of Hogan (Kid) Bassey, the featherweight king.

Bassey, 26, of Nigeria, won the title by knocking out Cherif Hamina in Paris. It will be his fourth United States fight but his first in New York.

The non-title 10-round match with Carmelo Costa of Brooklyn will be carried by NBC radio and TV, starting at 10 p.m. Two judges and a referee will score it by rounds, using a supplementary point system in case of even rounds.

Costa, only 24, used to be a high ranked contender in the 120-pound class. Of four starts this year, he has won three.

A Costa primarily is a boxer—he has knocked out only three in 45 fights—he isn't expected to last the distance, but he has won by knockout the Bobcats 14 to 7 and eliminated them from the running.

As Coach Pierce put it, "this is the most important game so far. The district title is at stake. We'll have to put out 200 per cent to turn back the much-improved Panthers."

The kickoff is at 8 o'clock.

Porks Hopeful for Victory Over A&M

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas Razorbacks head for Texas today hoping to run "Lucky 7" after rolling "snake eyes" six consecutive times.

They face Texas A&M tomorrow, their seventh opponent in a season of six losses—the longest losing streak in the school's history. The Razorbacks worked on their passing game yesterday in practice, with Coach Frank Broyles commenting:

"Considering everything, the work we've done and our spirits seem to be all right."

He noted an improvement in the passing, which was done mostly by quarterbacks Mike Conroy of Tyler, Tex., and Jim Monroe of Texarkana.

Broyles said he was undecided on a starting quarterback against the miracle-finish Aggies, who garnered 27 points in the last quarter to whip Baylor last week 33-27.

Regular fullback Donnie Stone of Fayetteville continued to run at halfback and apparently is regaining his health after an influenza attack. But Broyles said he doubted if Stone would play against A&M.

Truckle Bill Michaels of Blytheville took it easy during practice because of dizzy spells that have troubled him recently. He is expected to perform at full speed Saturday, however.

The rest of the squad was reported in good physical shape. The Razorbacks will leave Fayetteville at 2 p.m. today by plane for College Station, Tex., arriving in time for a workout tonight at Kyle Field.

Home Stretch in Football Play in State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

High school football heads down the home stretch in Arkansas tonight but the schedule is relatively free of key games.

Hol Springs is at Blytheville and North Little Rock at Pine Bluff for Big Nine Conference affairs, but in each game the visiting team is a top-heavy favorite.

Morrilton is at Little Rock and Fort Smith at Fair Park of Shreveport in non-league contests. El Dorado, top-ranked club in the Associated Press Poll, defeated Texarkana 51-6 last night. Little Rock Central bowled to Memphis 28-0.

El Dorado unleashed a furious attack, scoring the first four times it got the ball and continuing at a steady pace throughout the game.

Memphis who turned on frequent bursts of speed to blank the once powerful Little Rock Central. The passing of quarterback Elliott Hemmree played a big role in the victory.

The topsy-turvy season—just a month away from its end—finds Hall the only Big Nine member with a perfect record. The Warriors aren't eligible for the title, however, as they could not arrange a round robin schedule.

Morrilton should provide a rugged hurdle in the Warriors' bid for a seventh straight victory. The Devil Dogs stepped up into class AA this year and have been giving a good account of themselves.

Fort Smith is a slight choice over Fair Park.

Region IAA has no key conference game this week. In Fayetteville, which is to Springfield, Mo., Hillcrest takes the spotlight since the Bulldogs will be picking a 7-0 record. Rogers is at Springfield for a league battle.

Forest City, a title contender in Region 2AA, meets a stern test at Stuttgart while Wayne visits Helena. West Memphis, the favorite, has an open date.

Benton is at Jacksonville and Russellville at Moberly in 3AA contests.

None can virtually clinch the Region 4AA division by repulsing visiting Camden. Other games: Ford Crossville at Smythover and Magnolia to Camden Fairview.

keep pulling until they quit struggling.

He said he used the same piece of fish cord and the same pistol in all assaults. The weapons were in his car when highway patrolmen found a fourth intended victim holding the sun on him after a desperate struggle in a car Monday night.

The slender, sandy-haired ex-convict who served prison terms in New York and Colorado for kidnapping and rape, confessed after two days' questioning and a lie detector test, said chief investigator Joel Hays of the Orange County district attorneys office.

The victims died 15, 8 and 3 months ago in this order, as Hays quoted Glattman's confession:

Mrs. Judy Ann Dull, 10, West Hollywood, was assaulted in his apartment after a date to shoot nine pictures of her Aug. 1, 1957. He strangled her on the desert near Indio, about 95 miles east of here, and buried her in a shallow, sandy grave.

Posing as "George Williams," a Pasadena plumber, Glattman dated Mrs. Shirley Ann Lay Bridgeford, 24, a divorcee of suburban San Valley, through a Los Angeles lonely hearts club last March 8.

With the rope he ended her life, said Hays, and then forced her to drive her to a disreputable hotel where he strangled her. He didn't bury her, he said, because he didn't want to be caught.

Last July 23 he called on Miss Ruth Rita Mercado, 24, through a modeling advertisement. He spent the night in the apartment, assaulting her repeatedly at gunpoint then forced her to walk to his car.

"I didn't want to kill her," Glattman told officers. "She was the one I really liked. So I told her we were going out to a deserted spot where we wouldn't be bothered while I took more pictures. We drove out to the Escondido district I tried and tried to strangle her but I couldn't come up with any answer, so I got out the rope and did it the same way. I did the others I piled some brush and debris on her body and left her there."

Officers said his fourth intended victim was Miss Lorraine Vigil, 28, Los Angeles, whom he dated Monday night, ostensibly for picture-taking in he told her, his "studio." Instead, he sped about 35 miles south on the Santa Ana Freeway and parked. He produced a pistol, tied her hands and tried to assault her. They struggled. The pistol went off and the bullet grazed the inside of Miss Vigil's right leg. But she grabbed the weapon and was holding Glattman at bay when patrolmen happened by.

Glattman, 34, was charged with first degree murder, kidnapping, rape, and possession of a dangerous weapon.

He was held in the county jail on $100,000 bond.

New Edsel on Display at Hope Auto Co.

Edsel, America's newest car, introduces a full line of distinctively styled automobiles that are sensible in size, lighter in weight, and are priced competitively with the top tier of the largest-selling three. The Edsel is now showing at Hope Auto Co.

In answer to public demands for a car that makes more sense, the Corsair series has been trimmed five inches in length, excess weight has been cut an average of 150 pounds per car, and all Edsels have been repositioned in the market.

Interior dimensions, wheelbase, all stamped body parts, and the entire lineup of models have been changed. For 1959, Edsel has a complete line of cars in three series: Ranger, Corsair and Villager station wagons.

"The Edsel will be directly competitive with the top series of the largest-selling three," Ben D. Mills, Ford Motor Company vice president and general manager of Mercury, Edsel and Lincoln, said.

"An Edsel comparably equipped item for item, will sell within $50 or less of the top series of Chevrolet, Plymouths and Fords," he added.

All but one of Edsel's four engines for 1959 operate on lower-priced standard gasoline. The Edsel lineup also includes for the first time an Economy Six for those who want the maximum in gas saving.

Edsel transmissions include the new, 50-pound lighter low-cost two-speed Mile-O-Matic.

Ride Subways, Diplomats Told
PARIS (AP)—American diplomats in Paris have been told to take the subway to call on their development partners.

The development came to light when the embassy distributed strict instructions on where to pick up subway tickets, plus maps of the Paris underground system.

It was brought about by a quarrel between a diplomat and a subway ticket collector who had eliminated the embassy motor pool.

Apparently, however, the embassy maintained enough sense to pick up subway tickets at the airport, Assistant Secretaries of State and above are also still entitled to this treatment.

Gives Self Up After Two Years

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—A San Quentin prison convict who stole a plane and fled with three others from an honor camp two years ago turned himself in Wednesday.

Gerald E. Baucum, 28, who had been living in Butte, Mont., said he married after the escape and later decided to "start a new life without being afraid to look at myself in the mirror."

Warden Fred Dickson greeted him with: "Congratulations, son. I know this is something you will never regret."

"I know that, too, warden," said Baucum, whose companions were captured within a month of the escape.

Baucum had served 3½ years of a 5-year-to-life sentence for a San Francisco holdup when he fled. The escape could mean another sentence of one year to life.

The San Francisco Chronicle had announced Wednesday that the fugitive would surrender.

Two Sentenced to Die Rerieved

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two Negro men have received reprieve from death in the state's electric chair, tomorrow.

Stays of execution were granted Leo Lee of Little Rock and James M. Moore of Texarkana, both condemned to death for first degree murder.

The delays were authorized to permit attorneys to prepare appeals for new trials.

Moore's attorney plans on appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court and Lee's attorney will seek a rehearing before the state Supreme Court, which has affirmed both sentences.

Moore was convicted at Texarkana for participation in the robbery slaying of M. R. Hamm, an elderly white man in May, 1956.

Lee was convicted of the slaying of William Harrison Smith Jr., a Little Rock Negro postman, on Dec. 26, 1956.

Until the stays were granted both convicted men were to have been put to death at Tucker Prison Farm tomorrow.

Says Rule by People Is Partially Lost

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 school desegregation decision has resulted in partial loss of "government by the people," U.S. Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark.) said today.

McClellan recalled he had predicted in 1954 that the court action would result in loss of some freedom. He said subsequent events have confirmed the prediction.

The senator confirmed the problem is not confined to Arkansas, Virginia or the South. "What they are doing here they are doing to the other states also. And these states will someday feel it."

McClellan said the court desegregation decision disregarded and repealed what had been the law of the land for 50 years.

"If you," he said, "who has the primary responsibility of obeying the law of the land, certainly the Supreme Court, if the court is not guided by the law of the land, how can it expect the people to respect it? I personally don't respect that court decision."

McClellan spoke at the congressional forum sponsored by the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce.

Crane Topples Into Lake, Man Drowns

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The operator of a large locomotive crane drowned yesterday when the machine toppled from rails atop Carpenter Dam and plunged into water below Lake Hamilton.

The body of Lewis C. Smith, about 40, was recovered about three hours after the accident. He was an employee at the Arkansas Power & Light Co. dam.

Smith lived at a company village near the dam with his wife and two children.

THE STORY: Katherine Millicent said that her stepfather had something to do with her mother's death, has decided to lay the whole matter before her Aunt Millicent.

Aunt Millicent said, "Just before lunch, I was reading the most horrifying article in that magazine — all about adult diseases when they attack children. I'd never thought about it before — of course, that was just what the article said — that people don't think about it enough — it's one of the blind spots in the public conscience."

She paused, slid her spoon into her soup and as if on signal, three spoons rose to three mouths. Aunt Millicent dipped the spoon down into the bowl again. She addressed herself to Paul: "Have you ever thought about children getting these things?"

He said deeply reluctantly, without looking up, "No."

Aunt Millicent was saying, "Well, of course my mind went right away to Bunks. Her stomach's very sensitive, you know."

I mean we've always had a lot of trouble with it. We've had her to the doctor over and over again, but he always says the same thing — try not to give her so many sweets and fried foods. Well, of course that's ridiculous. Simply ridiculous."

"Anyone she's allergic," said Katherine.

"No, to something in particular. I'm allergic to feathers. The doctor said I was. He examined me."

Well," said Aunt Millicent slowly, "Bunks might have an allergy. I haven't thought of that. It might not be a cancer after all. I mean there were all those other things in the article — tuberculosis."

From the narrow white line between his lips, Paul said, "It's probably food poisoning."

Aunt Millicent was just putting her spoon in her mouth. There was a black silence for almost a minute, and then Katherine's voice, hollow and dead, echoed: "Food poisoning?"

Paul was looking at her. She glanced hurriedly at her plate in confusion. She had to be more careful, but how could the soup be poisoned? Paul had not gotten anywhere near it.

Aunt Millicent was saying, "Oh, that's impossible! No one could be more careful than I am. Why, I always buy the best food in the world. My kitchen's as clean as a pin."

Paul and Aunt Millicent were

Rice Month Is set for November

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today proclaimed the month of November as Rice Month in Arkansas.

Faubus signed the proclamation after J. M. Spicer of Stuttgart, president of the Arkansas Rice Growers Assn., presented him with samples of Arkansas rice.

Tom Dodson of Stuttgart, executive secretary of the association, told the governor that rice was a $90 million dollar annual industry for the state.

Dodson said the association would provide as much rice as the governor and his staff could use during Rice Month.

REA Tells of Many Attacks

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Power monopolies and the Eisenhower Administration have repeatedly attacked the Rural Electrification program this year, the national president of the rural electric cooperative assn. said here today.

"We have been able to hold them off so far, but the forces are doubling against us — and it is questionable how long we will be able to hold the fort," said John M. George of Lewiston, Idaho, in a speech prepared for delivery at a four-state regional meeting of the RECA.

The two-day meeting opened today, attracting 700 delegates from Arkansas, Louisiana, Missouri and Oklahoma.

Heart of Law Softens a Bit

DETROIT (AP)—The heart of the law softened today to permit an injured squirrel to join its master in jail.

When jobless Charlie Spurlock, 28, went behind bars Wednesday on a bad check charge, officers carried off his pet squirrel, Perri, to the dog pound. Charlie wept at the separation. The squirrel has an injured hind leg.

"She goes everywhere with me," he said. "She hangs onto my jacket and sleeps in the pocket."

Charlie was so upset the cell-block attendants got permission to return the squirrel to him. Spurlock joyfully popped Perri into his prison shirt pocket and fed her peanuts.

both watching her. She said carefully controlling her voice, "People have been poisoned. You read about it in the paper all the time."

"Why, what on earth do you mean, darling?" said Aunt Millicent, bewilderment written across her face.

"Murder,"

"Oh, nobody'd want to murder Bunks. She's only nine years old."

"I wasn't thinking of Bunks particularly."

"Darling, what were you thinking about?"

Katherine finished off her soup without answering. Aunt Millicent rang the bell beside her on the table, and Amy came in to clear away the bowl. When he had gone, Katherine said, "I was thinking about people getting killed."

Aunt Millicent laughed loudly. She said to Paul, "Children are all alike. It's those comic books they read, of course. That's what gives them these ideas about murder and killing people. Have you ever looked at one?"

Paul said, "No."

"I don't read comic books," said Katherine.

Aunt Millicent disregarded this. She went on talking, addressing herself to Paul. "And it's not just the comic books, either. Not by any means. Look at the movies. Where Wolves — Frankenstein monsters — vampires — gangsters — hoodlums — criminals —"

Katherine said, "I don't go to that kind of movies."

"Well, you must have gotten all these ideas from someplace."

Katherine said slowly, feeling that now she was indeed taking her life directly in her own hands. "There are other ways to kill people."

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that . . . if you're going to murder somebody . . . there are easier ways to do it than poisoning them." She finished up with a sudden rush and looked down at the table, not daring to meet the expression in Paul's eyes.

Aunt Millicent said, "What kinds of ways?"

"Well . . . if you run over them with a car, it might look like an accident." She stopped and thought for a moment. "Or if they fall off a high place — nobody could tell if they'd been pushed."

"Why, this is perfectly terrible," said Aunt Millicent righteously.

"Where in the world do you ever hear of such things?"

Katherine thought. "I've gone this far. I might as well go all the way."

She had almost gotten up her hands, clenching her fists and forcing herself to look up from the table when Amy came in with a tray of sandwiches and a dish of potato salad. She set them in front of Aunt Millicent, brought a pile of plates for her to serve, handed the plates around the table, and then went back out to the kitchen. The conversation had stopped altogether in her presence, but as soon as she had gone, Katherine said in one gasp of breath getting it over with as quickly as she could, "Or like drowning."

Studies Driver's License Bureau

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A special committee has been appointed from the Arkansas Legislative Council to study the possibility of a clearing house for drivers' licenses as a separate division of the State Police.

Schs. Marshall Shackelford Jr. of El Dorado, who is permanent chairman, and Clifton Wade of Fayetteville were named to the committee.

Shackelford and Wade charged that some drivers lost their licenses because of traffic offenses and then purchased replacements at other towns.

State Police Director Herman E. Lindsey told the council that the Revenue Department had been asked to check with State Police before selling a license to persons without an old one or without evidence of having taken a driver's examination. But he said that the system is not foolproof.

Negroes Denied Try to Amend Order

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Negroes attacking bus segregation in Birmingham today were denied permission to amend a federal court suit in order to attack a new legal barrier to integrated seating.

Effect of the ruling of U.S. District Court Judge H. Hobart Grooms was to give the Negroes the option of continuing their attack on a law that has been repealed, or to file a completely new suit.

The new ordinance which Negro attorneys attempted to substitute in their case does not mention segregation but empowers bus drivers to tell passengers where to sit. The Birmingham Transit Co. has posted notices directing whites to sit from the front and Negroes from the rear.

GOV. FAUBUS Says . . .

Full Crew Law Doesn't Hurt Arkansas*

Vote AGAINST Initiated Act No. 1

*Arkansas Gazette, July 25, 1958

Governor Faubus signs a full crew petition for S. J. Smith at Fordyce, Ark.

The Arkansas Committee for Railroad Safety appreciates Governor Faubus' stand against the attempt of outsiders to "use" the state of Arkansas. The Eastern railroad interests are trying to bleed Arkansas of $3,000,000 a year more profits at the expense of safety and service. They will eliminate thousands of jobs and force more of our people to leave the state. They will cause death and injury to Arkansas citizens. These outside interests have callously engaged in a "brainwashing" campaign. They want to repeal our safety laws, cause unemployment, and force more people to leave Arkansas. . . . And none of this will reduce the cost of living or freight rates.
